THE THIRST FOR FREEDOM

by Nataliia Melnyk

The events of the novel "The Thirst for Freedom" begin in 1938 with a young girl's desire to open her own women's clothing atelier in the centre of Lviv. Nusia is ambitious, self-confident, and focused on her own goals. She would certainly achieve them. Especially at the turn of the century, when the world around her offered many opportunities, especially for women.

But the war ruined all her plans. What choice should the girl make: to escape from war-torn Europe or to accept the new order? Nusia, like so many girls of that time who have been left nameless in history, chooses the third way — to fight in the ranks of the Ukrainian Insurgent Army. Because the thirst for freedom is stronger than anything else.

THE TALE OF THE RED SNAKE

by Yuliana Nesterovych

Natalia is a young rural teacher from Poltava region, who, along with her sister, was sent to teach in one of the villages of Galicia after the Second World War. She has a curious and intelligent son, Mykhas, who, like most boys his age, is mischievous. Despite his young age, Mykhailo often asks his mother grown-up questions the answers to which are dangerous to seek in a totalitarian state: why are collective farm workers so impoverished, why Uncle Stefan's neighbor was imprisoned, why is Moscow the 'elder sister' of Kyiv, who are 'bourgeois nationalists', why can you no longer believe in God. But Mykhas has no idea about an incredible secret hidden in the house of the so-called 'enemies of the people', where he and his mother live.

HISTORICAL FICTION

BLOODY KAFA. THE INTERRUPTED PATH OF SHEHZADE:

a historical novel. Book 1

by Oleksandra Shutko

The novel takes place in the late fifteenth century in Ottoman Kafa (now Feodosia), in the Crimea. Sultan Bayezid II sent his youngest son, Shehzade Mehmed, as governor to establish diplomatic relations with the Muscovites. The Crimean khan Mengli Giray took advantage of this situation. In an attempt to gain independence from the Ottoman sultan, he brought Shehzade Mehmed closer to him, making him his son-in-law. Soon Shehzade Mehmed began to contradict his father and brought trouble on himself... At the age of fifteen, the future Sultan Suleiman the Magnificent became the next governor of Kafa.

MURDER IN THE HAREM: DETECTIVE HISTORICAL NOVEL

by Oleksandra Shutko

Osman III, the son of the Ukrainian sultan Shekhsuvar (Maria) ascended the throne at the age of 55. During his short reign (1754–1757), a number of suspicious deaths occurred in the harem. The loudest was the loss of the heir to the throne — 42-year-old Mehmed. The janissaries also heard about this murder. Accusing the sultan, they almost raised an uprising in Istanbul. Osman III himself lived in fear of becoming the next victim of a mysterious murderer. Who was the palace murderer? The chief eunuch of the harem found the answer to this question.

REJECTED BY GOD

by Oleksii Volkov

The beginning of the 16th century. Tatars kidnap two boys from a Podil village. After years of wandering, one of them finds himself in the Netherlands under the rule of Emperor Charles V, where he asserts himself as a navigator, artist and warrior. The other lives high under the leader of the Mediterranean pirates, who serves the Turkish Sultan Suleiman I. The fierce confrontation between the two empires destroys the dreams of these two young men and directs both to the most famous sea battle of the era, where, having lost everything, they receive the illusory hope of returning home...

NOVEL

ENFILADE

by Olena Demir

Telling the story of her family, the main character depicts the period of the collapse of the Soviet Union, the formation of Independent Ukraine, the school education system, the emergence of spontaneous markets, the Orange Revolution, the terrible state of the penitentiary system of Ukraine, touches on the topic of ATO. Ukraine is a separate character in the novel and, along with others, is undergoing a series of transformations. Through the character's dialogues, painful topics are raised that are not usually spoken about openly. The metaphor of the story is a continuous enfilade of places, other people's apartments, and empty rooms, from which the heroine leaves, never to return. The idea of the novel centres around the question — is a person with the brand of 'social bottom', without education and special talents, able to bring moral values to our society that we would want to emulate? After all, the novel "Enfilade", like any other, is a novel about a person. About dark and light inside us, about friendship and love, stormy feelings and heavy disappointments, about hope and joy in the most difficult moments.

About the Author

Olena DEMIR

She was born and received her higher education in Ukraine. She worked as a journalist and editor-in-chief of the magazine "Kralya". She has been living abroad for the past 10 years. She runs a literary blog, writes about events in Ukraine, and introduces readers to the culture and traditions of Turkey. Her short stories have been published in "Ukraine People Magazine" and included in a collection of Ukrainian authors in Turkey. She is the winner and finalist of ten international literary contests. In 2022, she became a laureate of the European Institute of Literature prize (Krakow). "Enfilade" is the author's debut novel, which, in its manuscript stage, won the 'Book of the Year-2023' contest (in the 'Future Book' nomination) and 'The Coronation of the Word' contest (in the 'International Choice' nomination).

NOVEL

YELLOW BRICKS

by Myra Bo

Have you ever picked up an angel? The hero of "Yellow Bricks", an English teacher, finds a fair-haired teenager in a biker jacket with the words 'Wild Angel' and embroidered wings under his porch. Perhaps this is not an angel at all, but just an ordinary boy who needs saving. But the man himself could also use some help in a life that has lost all meaning. And, oh wonder! After meeting the boy, things start looking up for the teacher — or do they just seem to? What's really going on with this 'angel'? To find the answers, our hero will have to walk a longer road than he ever expected. "Yellow Bricks" is a story about the changes that come when you dare to reach for more. It tells the tale of many people, each with their own struggles and paths to happiness, whose lives sometimes intersect on the same road. Only when you have enough courage to be a good person life will give you what you're searching for.

About the Author

MYRA BO

Myra Bo is a contemporary Ukrainian writer. She has been a participant in multi-genre short prose literary contests since 2022 and is the author of short stories published in collective anthologies and magazines. She primarily works in the genres of speculative fiction, psychological, social, and domestic literature. "Yellow Bricks" is Myra's debut novel. "If a book can't make you laugh or make you happy, it should at least leave you with hope. My books are about ordinary people who often make mistakes, but aren't we all like that? We must hope that if we dare to do more, we can change our own lives. In the end, it's the choice that matters."

NOVEL

HOSPITAL

by Oleksii Volkov

The mysteries of the old monastery, which was later converted into a district hospital during the Soviet era, continue to haunt the more hot-headed members of the staff. No wonder! After all, the monastery was established by the Templars, later became a sanctuary for a notorious outlaw, hosted Napoleon's personal surgeon, and even served as the headquarters for the German army...

The monastery's cellars have been dug through and through, yet the legends of hidden treasures continue to thrive, thus giving rise to an exciting narrative. With wit and humour, the unparalleled master of the adventure genre recounts the lives and work of his colleagues — doctors, while also convincingly demonstrating to the reader that a detective story does not always have to revolve around murder or robbery.

NOVEL

HELLO. COME IN

by Dariia Lozovyk

The rampart, as a defensive structure, separates the protagonist from the reality he is not ready for. An old well with stagnant water reminds him of the importance of purity and transparency. His faithful dog supports him even in what he no longer believes in. "Hello. Come in" is a story about a man's relationship with three women who are so different from each other. Each of them is important to him. Each of them evokes strong feelings. Each one changes him. The realisation that he can be different, that he can fail, that he can fall deeply in love, that he can lose everything, that he can be honest enough to admit it all, is the price he has to pay for meeting the most important part of himself.

About the Author

Dariia LOZOVYK

Dariia Lozovyk is a Ukrainian writer, philologist and economist. She was born, lives and works in Lviv. She is fond of psychology and is studying at the Ukrainian Psychotherapeutic University, majoring in Psychoanalysis. She writes prose in the genre of psycho-drama and teaches at the Ryba School of Writing and Copywriting. Her debut collection of short stories "Nothing Condemnable" was published in 2019. The novel "Hello. Come in" is a story about finding one's own authenticity and the ability to love.

PRAYER FOR UKRAINE

by Hryhorii Yaremenko

A high school administrator from the former USSR — a country of militant atheism — buys a cathedral for the Orthodox Church. The traitor, who brought the Ukrainian patriots, that considered him their friend, to the execution, is recognized as a hero and a scientist. In Ukraine, Moscow's vassals fight with fighters for the independence of the state, and in the churches of North and South America prayers for Ukraine are heard every Sunday.

The novel by Hryhorii Yaremenko tells us about all these and many other, at first glance surreal events, such as friendship and love that are stronger than time and circumstances, the search for truth in the darkness of delusion, a picnic that took place fifty years after an invitation to it.

About the Author

Hryhorii YAREMENKO

Hryhorii Yaremenko is a philologist, translator, and teacher. He is a graduate of Kyiv Linguistic University and holds a PhD in Pedagogy. He was an associate professor at Kryvyi Rih National University, head of the Department of Foreign Languages; a professor at the Institute of Foreign Languages of the US Department of Defence.

He lives in San Antonio, Texas, USA.

In 1992, his first collection of poems was published.

DETECTIVE STORY

DALILAH OF THE RELICT VALLEY: A FEMALE DETECTIVE STORY WITH A LVIV SOUL

by Olha Vakkaus

The cold, phantasmagoric February that is in fact one year long, — that is what Ukrainians experience since the full-scale attack of the Russian aggressors, but, in fact, the bloody war has been going on since 2014, when Crimea was annexed. The border ran not only along the Perekop Isthmus — because of the differences in political views, a wedge of hatred appeared between close people, battles are taking place on the battlefield, in the information space, and on a subtle (energy) level. The main character of the mystical detective Daryna-Dalila is the future keeper of the Relict Valley, the Crimean “place of power”. Sei (guides from the parallel world) are preparing her for this mission, but Universal Evil is standing on the way of the light forces. Arriving in Lviv on the Christmas holiday, February 24, 2022, Daryna unexpectedly finds herself in the rear city of warring Ukraine. The girl's life changes dramatically: a continuous stream of shocking events, experiences on the verge of despair and hope cause her spiritual transformation.

DETECTIVE STORY

THE PROPHETESS

by Andrii Kokotiukha

Policemen can also be imprisoned — for the sins of their colleagues. This is what happened to Serhii Horilyi. After being released from prison he returned to his native Konotop and had to start life from the very beginning. But all that he can do is to be a detective and now he has an opportunity to prove it. A local businessman complained to the police: a woman called a witch predicted his death. The man was laughed at — and he really dies. The investigation is led by a Serhii's friend, to whom the same prophetess also foretells death. And when this prophecy also comes true, Horilyi realizes: everything is serious. He does not believe in mysticism, seeks a rational explanation. But when there is only one step left to the truth, Serhii himself receives a deadly prophecy...

DETECTIVE STORY

AUTO-DA-FÉ

by Mark Korda

The events of the novel take place in Spain at the end of the 15th century, when King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella ruled, the country was liberated from Muslim rule and the persecution of non-believers increased tremendously. Ghettos for Jews and Moors were created everywhere, and on the outskirts of large cities, on the ominous “squares of fire”, secular officials, according to the decrees of the New Inquisition, burned unrepentant heretics alive. It was an era of desperate confrontation between cruelty and mercy. The novel attracts attention not only with a sharp and dynamic plot, but also with interesting historical facts and thorough source material.

DETECTIVE STORY

MURDER IN THE LIBRARY

by Viktor Yankevych

No wonder the writer can involuntarily predict the events... The name of the presentation of detective stories suddenly became a reality, a real horror for him and for guests of the event, among whom we meet many well-known personalities of Ukraine.

Julia Levytska —

a librarian and a detective — will unravel a tight knot and, of course, find a murderer.

* * *

The main character of the detective story

“Revenge” is a librarian who, by coincidence, not only masterfully solved the crime in a foreign town, but also met her beloved one. But was it a fortune?

Beautiful town Kremenets, in which the events take place, serves not only as a background of the depicted story. It is alive. The author will inspire everyone who reads this novel to fall in love with this town.

DETECTIVE STORY

NET

by Viktor Yankevych

In this hectic, multifaceted, eventful world, where one should strive for solitude, we suffer from... loneliness. It would be nice if, on the one hand, no one "would tell you what to do"... but on the other hand, no one would be knocked out of a clearly organized line of "right" people. And the "wrong" people are desperate to be heard and are looking for salvation on the Internet... And suddenly there appears a girl...

MONEY DOCUMENTS OF THE OUN (BOFONS) IN 1929–1954

by Oleh Klymenko

For the first time in the Ukrainian historiography the prior unknown material — bofons, money documents of the Organization of Ukrainian Nationalists (the OUN), was widely analyzed by means of the help of methods of special historical disciplines and were generalized in the monograph on the basis of study of the large set of documents. The stages of their evolution, social, economic and political functions and their importance as economic and historical sources are presented in this scientific research.

The military fund of the Ukrainian Military Organization (UVO) and that of the OUN dates back to the creation and development of the OUN. Bofons are impartial witnesses of the historical events of that time. They played an important role in the system of social and economic relations. Because of the different circumstances and conditions of the rebellious struggle, during the time of their evolution they went through a rather difficult way: from donation receipts to requisitional receipts.

HISTORY

THE BOOK OF POWER. WILL:

by Valentyn Terletskyi

"The Book of Power" is a series of novels by Valentyn Terletskyi about the sources of power. The fiction study of the legends and phenomenon of the Ukrainian Cossacks from its inception to the present is based exclusively on real events, little-known facts and numerous mysteries. An intense plot, heart-breaking adventures, iconic figures, so far unsolved secrets of Zaporizhian Cossacks — all this creates a completely new look at the past of Ukrainian knights, gives unexpected answers to the painful questions of the present, leads to a rethinking of Ukrainian history and helps to believe in the future of our people. The first three novels in the series are "The Book of Power. Will"; "The Book of Power. Faith"; "The Book of Power. State".

About the Author
