LOCOMOTIVE ONE TWO THREE

author: Volodymyr Chernyshenko

illustrator: Volodymyr Shtanko

When a fierce and merciless enemy comes at us with a war and seeks to destroy everyone, then the fate of the country depends on each of us, and any help will not be superfluous. Even a small locomotive, which, it would seem, had done its job and was already resting peacefully on the spare track, rushes to help...

FAIRY TALES OF PUSHCHANSK FOREST

author: Svitlana Prudnyk

illustrator: Larysa Fedorchenko

Hedgehog Pantulko and his friends — Oak Zhartun, Moss Mokhlyk, Snail Myrko, Squirrel Hrasia, Magpie Hrunia, Lizard Smarahdychka, and Mouse Karapka — live in an ordinary-extraordinary forest. Every day brings a new adventure, whether joyful or not so much, worrisome, sometimes dangerous, instructive, and even involving a kidnapping. Together, they jaunt the tram, write a letter to a sick boy, save a winter sleep... They all take care of their home — Pushchansk Forest, even when war comes... Each fairy tale by the well-known Ukrainian writer Svitlana Prudnyk carries its own unique story with a small hidden lesson. Collectively, they create a beautiful book of life's important rules, and not just for the creatures of the forest... These stories teach valuable human virtues: humanity, kindness, friendship, helping others, fairness, and respect for nature with all its living beings, as well as show the importance of every life on Earth. For children aged 3 and up.

About the Author

Olena KOLINKO

Svitlana Prudnyk was born in Nikopol, Dnipropetrovsk Oblast. She graduated from the Faculty of Journalism at Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv. Having begun her career at the editorial office of the children's newspaper "Zirka", she went on to lead the literature department of the children's magazine "Barvinok" for nearly 25 years. Under Prudnyk's pen, numerous works have come to life, including "Fairy Tales of the Cozy Forest", "The Island of Babbler", "Eleven Tales of the Twelve Months", "If You Were Kind", "The Jumping City", "How Letters Were Found", "How Hedgehogs Flew into the Iriy", "Two Mice on a Cat's Back", "Fairy Wonder: Five Strawberries for the Turtle", and "Fairy Wonder: The School of Fairy Tale Composers". Her book "How Letters Were Found" was shortlisted for the BBC Book of the Year Award in 2012. An Honoured Journalist of Ukraine, she has received the Diploma of the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine and the Honorary Diploma of the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine. She has been a member of the National Writers' Union of Ukraine since 2010.

MODEL AND TALK. IN THE FOREST

author: Valentyna Rozhniv

plasticine: Iryna Basalyha

Children's memory develops when they see and hear. Discussing what they see and hear helps them to understand. If a child sees, hears, discusses and does, his or her skills are formed. Modelling is a simulator that develops the sensory and motor skills and mental processes of a child. The step-by-step instructions in the book will help your child to skilfully model different creatures. Thanks to simple phrases, the child will be able to voice each thing that he/she has sculpt. Sound imitations will encourage children who are silent to speak. If you have a young bilingual, this book is perfect for learning the first English words.

THE RESCUED TAILS

author: Nastia Muzychenko

illustrator: Maryna Shuturma

The shaggy cat Borysiuk lives in the Exhibition Centre in Kyiv in the ice arena. One morning he discovers that volunteers have set up a temporary shelter in a nearby pavilion for animals that were evacuated from the territory that had just been liberated from the Russian occupiers. Of course, Borysiuk goes to get acquainted with them — and the history of animals rescued from the epicenter of hostilities opens up to him.

These stories, created on the basis of real events, are deeply moving, and at the same time cause a soft and warm smile in order to move, but not traumatize, the little reader.

About the Author

Nastia MUZYCHENKO

Nastia Muzychenko is a writer, critic and reviewer of children's and teenage literature, methodologist of the children's reading laboratory at the Small Academy of Sciences of Ukraine, expert and organizer of book events at "BaraBooka. The Space of Ukrainian Children's Books".

In 2019, she made her debut as a writer with the picture book "Dreams for the Couch". In the same year, she won the literary competition "Write a book about me" with the manuscript "Lost in the Camp", that in 2021 was shortlisted for the book award "Espresso. Readers' Choice". In 2022, she published a book for children about the history of the Ukrainian railway, "History on the 14th Track". She dreams that every animal from the shelter will meet its Human.

BENJAMIN THE FICUS TALKS ABOUT HAPPINESS

author: Serhii Pantiuk

illustrator: Valeriia Kryzhanovska

When there are no people at home, it does not mean no one is there. After all, our pets and oxygen producers — indoor plants — remain. And then there is someone who usually does not like to be seen by either us or them: a household spirit. Under normal circumstances, these three worlds — people, plants, and the house spirit — coexist in the same house, but as if in parallel dimensions that never interact. However, when the war comes, bringing a time of terrible trials for everyone, it is the old Ficus Benjamin who first dares to break old superstitions and prejudices opening up to communication with other worlds... The surprisingly light yet poignant story by the famous writer and sergeant of the Armed Forces of Ukraine, Serhii Pantiuk, “Benjamin the Ficus Talks About Happiness” reveals how, in our seemingly ordinary lives during wartime, real values and eternal truths are fully uncovered.

About the Author

Serhii PANTIUK

Serhii Pantiuk was born in the village Sokilets, where the pasqueflower grows. He learnt to speak with Domovychok (house spirit), birds and flowers there. Then he became an author, especially for kids. Because kids are the most generous readers. Because children are the most grateful readers. Now he is a soldier in the Armed Forces of Ukraine. However, he did not abandon writing. Even in the trenches near Bakhmut. And this book is a testimony to that...

IF I WERE A CAT

author: Larysa Fedorchenko

illustrator: Larysa Fedorchenko

What if cats could bark? Or chirp, moo, and squeak? Wow! That's exactly what one brave little girl did—she imagined herself as a fearless kitty, ready to break all the cat rules! This little tabby doesn't just say "meow"—she says "chirp," "moo," and even "woof!" But this book is more than just fun. It helps us think big, be ourselves, and try new things! And every page will make you giggle and smile even bigger!

KOROVAI THAT GAVE WI-FI

A FANTASY NOVELLA WITH A TECH TWIST

author: Yuliia Vrotna

illustrator: Mariia Ivanova

For his birthday, Mykhailo's great-grandmother gifted him a traditional Ukrainian bread, korovai, but the boy dismissed the present, saying, "That's not Wi-Fi." Saddened but not discouraged, Korovai decided to... upgrade itself! It embarks on a whirlwind adventure and, along the rocky way, meets remarkable characters — the eccentric Mr. Tovstenko, a stray dog named Omega, food technologist Kateryna Vasylivna, and young inventor Mariika Curie... But will they help turn Mykhas' dream into reality?

THE CHILD FROM THE SACK

A FAIRY TALE NOVELLA

author: Ivan Andrusiak

illustrator: Valeriia Kryzhanovska

Kaloshko is one of the many characters of Ukrainian folklore created to scare children. The story goes that he comes at night, snatches a child into his sack, and carries them off into the dark forest... And then what? And why does no one ask what Kaloshko himself thinks about this? What will he do if, one day, a child appears in his sack out of nowhere?

With a clever twist on folkloric superstitions and educational stereotypes, acclaimed children's author Ivan Andrusiak sparks a profound conversation in his latest book, engaging young readers in a serious discussion about the pitfalls of growing up, while encouraging adults to recognize the importance of preserving 'the child within' no matter what.

For children aged 6 and up.

UNCLE WHOA GATHERS HERBS

A FAIRY TALE NOVELLA

author: Halyna Malyk

illustrator: Daryna Synhaivska

Uncle Whoa is one of the most beloved fairy tale characters created by the wonderful children's author Halyna Malyk. He lives in an old cottage in a skansen, begins his conversations with a "Whoa!", and weaves tales like no one else. In this book, we also discover that he knows everything about plants, particularly their healing powers. More than that, he is eager to teach it all to young readers: where to find and how to recognize the most common medicinal herbs, when to gather them, what ailments each plant can treat, and how to prepare remedies from them. For children aged 6 and up.

THE MAGIC JUG

author: Hanna Osadko

illustrator: Volodymyr Shtanko

"The Magic Jug" is a book about Trypillia that blends the past and future, fact and fiction. After meeting at the "Trypillia Culture" reserve in the village of Lehedzyne, Zoriana and Yarko not only visit the museum but also help with the communal work of building a Trypillian house, and study the unique pictographic writing of the Trypillians... And then... they are suddenly transported six thousand years into the past and find themselves in an authentic Trypillian settlement! The children witness the strange rituals of the Stork-Mother, work the land with primitive tools, and become both observers and participants in the daily life of the settlement's inhabitants. But most importantly, they mold a special magical jug that helps their fathers return safely from a dangerous hunt. Immerse yourself in the world of the past and learn more about the culture of our ancestors! The distinctive illustrations by Volodymyr Shtanko will captivate readers, and sharp-eyed fans will recognize characters from another beloved series — the tales of "Taffy and Tegumai" — in the vibrant illustrations! For preschool and early primary school children.

THE HARE'S BOOK

author: Ivan Andrusiak

illustrator: Olha Kuznietsova

It is one of the best books by one of the best modern Ukrainian poets, Ivan Andrusiak. Versed fairy tales are intended for reading aloud to a child and the first children's own reading. These are slightly mischievous, sometimes thoughtful, often funny and always good stories that Daddy Hare tells his little children — and it turns out that all these adventures happened to Daddy himself when he was little.

In 2018, the book was awarded the Lesia Ukrainka Award — the highest honor in Ukrainian literature for children.

MR. CHEESECAKE AND A DOUBLE EASTER BREAD

author: Svitlana Linynska

illustrator: Mariia Hrom-Vurlovska

Holy Thursday is a special day for Mr. Cheese-cake. On this day, he, the best baker in the town of Yasne, bakes Paskas — Easter bread. He bakes a variety of Paskas — with raisins, candied lemons, nutmeg, cottage cheese, cream, and even saffron. And Mr. Cheesecake is especially proud of the large Paska that all the townspeople will enjoy at Easter! Of course, it turned out to be a success — but the problem is that while kneading the dough, Mr. Cheesecake was also telling a girl named Orysia about the importance of mathematics. And you shouldn't play jokes with maths!

MR. CHEESECAKE AND CHRISTMAS DOUGHNUT

author: Svitlana Linynska

illustrator: Mariia Hrom-Vurlovska

An unusual incident happened in the small town Yasne before Christmas. The famous baker

Mr. Cheesecake spared the last Christmas doughnut, that is called pampushok in Ukraine, for a girl that came to his bakery, because he himself was very hungry. From that moment on, everything tasted bitter for him! Mr. Cheesecake was really worried. How will he prepare the most delicious pastries now? Who will help the baker? Maybe Doctor Achoo has some healing medicine for bitterness? And maybe a small miracle will happen before Christmas...

PAVLUS AND SANTA'S REINDEERS

author: Halyna Maniv

illustrator: Iryna Lukasheva

Everyone knows that real miracles happen at Christmas! One of such miracles happened to the polite boy Pavlus: he not only found a true friend, the dog Bonia, but also went with him all the way to the Far North to help Santa's reindeers to find their lost fawn. But everyone also knows that miracles don't happen so easily: Pavlus and Bonia will have to quell the Forest of Evil Refrigerators, cross the Valley of Monsters, and even talk to the One Who Lives in the Cave... But if you feel your responsibility and are ready to be courageous — then all obstacles will be easily overcome!

About the Author

Halyna MANIV

Halyna Maniv was born on 13 March 1965. She has always loved reading and creating her own stories. When she became an adult she entered the Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv and received a master's degree in philology. She discovered that her stories were interesting not only to her, but also to many children and even adults. So, with the support of these adults, the author's first book, "Apartment", was published, followed by other fairy tales and fantasy stories.

Halyna Maniv always lives in her beloved city of Kyiv and continues to create her world with brave, curious and sensitive characters, travels and fun adventures, in which good always wins.

TALES FROM SLEEPY'S BAG

author: Olena Khodiuk

illustrator: Valeriia Pertii

Every night mum Olena asks her little girl Victoria to go to the bed, but the little girl, like all children, doesn't want to fall asleep. And then Sleepy comes to help her mother. He has a magic bag from which he pulls out "falling asleep" fairy tales.

This book is made up of the fairy tales that Sleepy took out of his bag for Victoria, but they can also be useful for other children as well as their parents.

This book also has the magical ability to "call" Sleepy to you — and together with him and your baby you can invent your own fairy tales — which Sleepy might like to take into his bag...For children aged 4+.

SHEDDY

author: Artem Shvachka

illustrator: Olesia Kukcharenko

It is commonly understood among all pupils: as long as there are holidays, there's always room for leisure. Yehor, Nazar, and Diana turn a half-built cottage that resembles a fortress into their playground. Everything was going smoothly until an ibex — a magnificent Alpine mountain goat with impressively twisted horns — escaped from the local zoo, where, as rumour has it, the animals weren't well cared for. And if their fortress hadn't turned into an unintentional trap from which the ibex couldn't escape... A thrilling adventure story by Artem Shvachka, "Sheddy" delves into themes of friendship and responsibility, freedom and choice. Above all, it's about the moment every teenager will inevitably face — the moment when they must make adult decisions and muster the courage for their first steps toward maturity, steps that reveal who they truly are...

THE ADVENTURES OF BRAVE

author: Natalia Lishchynska

illustrator: Valeriia Pertii

The red, restless little dragon Brave can't live without adventures.

He grows, learns to fly, makes friends, helps and wins. Thanks to curiosity, intelligence, generosity, sensitivity, and his family and friends, Brave comes out of trouble a little wiser and stronger. The story shows us the depth and importance of life issues that a growing baby has to deal with. A cute little dragon does not give up even when he lacks strength. Bright and cheerful Brave is always ready to help someone who is in trouble, so he finds new friends everywhere. And it is easier to defeat evil when you are not alone.

GHOST

author: Oksana Davydova

illustrator: Alevtina Shavlach

The Ukrainian town where Andrii lives with his grandmother Alla was occupied by Russian invaders. They kill peaceful people, and at the same time assure us that they have come to “liberate” us. Not only people suffer from their arbitrariness, but also the ghost of Yavdusia, whom Andrii became friends with and called Pryvydusia. She helps him to find firewood so that his grandmother can cook meal on the fire. Andrii and Pryvydusia even manage to convey secret information to the Armed Forces of Ukraine about the location of the enemy’s headquarters. But then Andrii accidentally reveals the secret of who Yavdusia really is...

HOW TO ESCAPE FROM A HOPELESS ISLAND

author: Svitlana Aman

illustrator: Olena Taranenko

A hundred-day sports regatta has been announced in Magic Port. Experienced sailboats and... a timid, nondescript boat named Reliable will compete. Jokingly, and perhaps maliciously, this boat is called unReliable! What will now await him in the stormy ocean, far from the cozy bay? It is well-known that the fate of a ship is determined by its name!

The race will be difficult for this inexperienced boat and his team, a dog and a monkey. But if you hope, show courage and ingenuity under the most difficult circumstances, then you are not afraid of storms, giant whirlpools, greedy pirates, or even the fact that your rivals do not take you seriously...

About the Author

SEVEN BAD LUCKS OF ANDRIIKO HOVORUKHA (HUMOROUS ADVENTURE STORY)

— ANDROID SERIES, BOOK 1

author: Sasha Kochubei

illustrator: Sasha Kochubei

Girl Eva, a classmate of Andriiko Hovorukha (school nickname Android, whose surname can be translated as Talker), to his mind, is as tall as a giraffe. Once she took offense at him and prophesied seven troubles for him — bad lucks. And so they begin to come true — getting more and more nervous because of this the boy gets into more and more funny situations again and again. Until it suddenly becomes clear that in fact... Hovorukha and Eva are the same height, and it is really interesting to count the freckles on the girl's face! Full of sparkling humour, Sasha Kochubei's debut novel "Seven Bad Lucks of Andriiko Hovorukha" is the winner of the "Write a book about me!" contest, announced by the "Fontan Kazok" ("Fountain of Tales") publishing house in 2015.

HOVORUKHA BOOK OF RECORDS

(HUMOROUS ADVENTURE STORY) — ANDROID SERIES, BOOK 2

author: Sasha Kochubei

illustrator: Sasha Kochubei

Andriiko Hovorukha (whose surname can be translated as Talker), nicknamed Android at school, and his friend Yurchyk have a new problem: their girlfriends are now fond of the popular actor and stopped paying attention to them. But Hovorukha does not give up! He is ready to set any records he wants in order to become famous and defeat an unexpected "rival"... Sasha Kochubei's first novel "Seven Bad Lucks of Andriiko Hovorukha" in a short time gained the reputation of a book thanks to which even children who don't like reading begin to love it. "Hovorukha Book of Records" is a new adventure of favourite characters, even more gripping and funny. And these are the heroes in whom modern Ukrainian schoolchildren really "recognize themselves".

MOTHER OF THE SUN

author: Anastasiia Lavrenyshyna

illustrator: Mariia Savko

There is a steep mountain in the middle of the endless sea. On its top a haphazardly molded, yet cozy house in which the Sun lives is located. Every morning the Sun rides into the sky on its boisterous horse Tatosha and Ma stays at home. She manages the household, collects food, cooks, and at night combs the Sun's golden hair so that it shines beautifully all day...

Maybe it would have continued like this until now if one day a young wind girl had not knocked on the door and begun to find out what this fragile world stands on, what skeletons are hiding in secret rooms, and what passions are flowing in the bowels of the mountain and the heart of the Mother of the Sun...

About the Author

Anastasiia LAVRENYSHYNA

Anastasiia Lavrenyshyna grew up in fairy tales told to her by her dear grandmother. From childhood to now, fairy tales follow her, and sometimes the author herself leads fairy tales, shaking off the dust from them and updating them. The fantasy "Mother of the Sun" is written based on the magical Ukrainian fairy tale "Dido Vsevydo". The writer started working on it in Ukraine before the full scale invasion of Russia and finished it already in the heart of European fairy tales between the mysterious Vosges Mountains and the even more mysterious Black Forest, where the Brothers Grimm collected their fairy tales. In addition to rethinking fairy tale plots, the author develops animation projects together with her husband, artist and director Anatolii Lavrenyshyn; raises two sons, whose hair is like a golden ray, and whose eyes are the blue of the sea.

THE GORGON'S KEY

author: Mariana STEFAK

It is not easy to be a teenager, especially when you're a 'troublesome' teenager from Magic Forest. And especially when you find yourself in the whirlwind of events and you are asked to do just an ordinary thing — to save the world from the Ancient Evil — the gigantic Serpent Gorgon. Is this possible for a twelve-year-old boy, who hasn't got any magical abilities?

THE BONE TOWER

by Mari Mort

"The Bone Tower" marks the first book in a trilogy. What dangers could threaten a world inhabited by wise Seers and mystical races — vampires, necromancers, shapeshifters, and elves, each with their own unique magic? Wars have ignited since the dawn of time, weaved by ancient demons in the bloody waters of the Primordial Ocean, only to swiftly fade away in comparison to all eternity.

And then, a cult suddenly emerges, declaring its mission to eradicate anyone, down to the very last, who even remotely dares to use magic. Fanatic squads march through the princedoms, ready to kill anyone who either refuses or is unable to join their ranks, while most cities are slowly engulfed in chaos.

The Living among the Dead and the Dead among the Living, who dwell in the Bone Tower, are well aware: a war is coming. And it will turn the familiar world to dust. However, the necromancers are in no rush to intervene in the affairs of the living — at least not until the battle reaches the graveyards.

Who will have the strength to oppose the armies of fanatics, impervious to magic, when even the invincible Night Legions — the mighty vampire coven — have fallen? Can the heroes overcome their internal strife and unite in the face of danger? And, above all, to uncover the mysterious force issuing orders to their enemies?

The gates of the Bone Tower are open to all, beckoning readers on a mystical journey through a realm of magic, ancient legends, and epic triumphs.

About the Author

Mari MORT

Mari Mort is a writer, scholar, architectural designer, and a supporter of mystical worldviews and gothic aesthetics. She resides in the city of Rivne, her forever home.

"I consider literature — and art in general, in all its manifestations — a form of magic and a justification for the existence of this imperfect world. I write about everything I observe and feel. It just so happens that my realism often turns out to be someone else's dark fantasy."

BEYOND REALITY

by Uliana Dadak

Dreva and Orest are two opposites of the same reality. Their meeting will shatter others' plans and erase the line between good and evil. As devils join the fight, and the ancient foundations of magical Lviv crumble behind them, these two will have to unite and fight for their own future.

The novel "Beyond Reality" is a story in the genre of urban fantasy. The events take place in Ukraine in 2018. The work depicts the relationships between the characters, their problems and aspirations. Although the magical world in the book is fictional, this story is inspired by Ukrainian traditions and ancient beliefs.

MY DAD PETLIURA

author: Savchuk Nataliia

illustrator: Albina Kolesnichenko

The book presents a biographical reconstruction adapted for young primary school readers, created by Nataliia Marchenko (pen name — Nataliia Savchuk), a PhD in History and Senior Research Fellow at the Institute of Biographical Studies of the National Library of Ukraine, who specializes in children's literature and reading. This scientific biography-installation recounts the life of the renowned Ukrainian statesman Symon Petliura from the perspective of his cherished daughter Lesia, with whom he maintained an exceptionally close and trusting bond throughout his life. Each of the seven stories reveals a different aspect of Petliura's character that is likely to resonate with young readers — his eloquence, love for music and the arts, his ability to foster friendships and unite people, his unwavering commitment to his ideals, and his selfless devotion to his cause. Additionally, young readers will uncover fascinating insights into the historical realities, events, and individuals connected to the Petliura family. For children aged 9 and up.

THE THIRST FOR FREEDOM

by Nataliia Melnyk

The events of the novel "The Thirst for Freedom" begin in 1938 with a young girl's desire to open her own women's clothing atelier in the centre of Lviv. Nusia is ambitious, self-confident, and focused on her own goals. She would certainly achieve them. Especially at the turn of the century, when the world around her offered many opportunities, especially for women.

But the war ruined all her plans. What choice should the girl make: to escape from war-torn Europe or to accept the new order? Nusia, like so many girls of that time who have been left nameless in history, chooses the third way — to fight in the ranks of the Ukrainian Insurgent Army. Because the thirst for freedom is stronger than anything else.

THE TALE OF THE RED SNAKE

by Yuliana Nesterovych

Natalia is a young rural teacher from Poltava region, who, along with her sister, was sent to teach in one of the villages of Galicia after the Second World War. She has a curious and intelligent son, Mykhas, who, like most boys his age, is mischievous. Despite his young age, Mykhailo often asks his mother grown-up questions the answers to which are dangerous to seek in a totalitarian state: why are collective farm workers so impoverished, why Uncle Stefan's neighbor was imprisoned, why is Moscow the 'elder sister' of Kyiv, who are 'bourgeois nationalists', why can you no longer believe in God. But Mykhas has no idea about an incredible secret hidden in the house of the so-called 'enemies of the people', where he and his mother live.

BLOODY KAFKA. THE INTERRUPTED PATH OF SHEHZADE:

a historical novel. Book 1

by Oleksandra Shutko

The novel takes place in the late fifteenth century in Ottoman Kafa (now Feodosia), in the Crimea. Sultan Bayezid II sent his youngest son, Shehzade Mehmed, as governor to establish diplomatic relations with the Muscovites. The Crimean khan Mengli Giray took advantage of this situation. In an attempt to gain independence from the Ottoman sultan, he brought Shehzade Mehmed closer to him, making him his son-in-law. Soon Shehzade Mehmed began to contradict his father and brought trouble on himself... At the age of fifteen, the future Sultan Suleiman the Magnificent became the next governor of Kafa.

MURDER IN THE HAREM: DETECTIVE HISTORICAL NOVEL

by Oleksandra Shutko

Osman III, the son of the Ukrainian sultan Shekhsuvar (Maria) ascended the throne at the age of 55. During his short reign (1754–1757), a number of suspicious deaths occurred in the harem. The loudest was the loss of the heir to the throne — 42-year-old Mehmed. The janissaries also heard about this murder. Accusing the sultan, they almost raised an uprising in Istanbul. Osman III himself lived in fear of becoming the next victim of a mysterious murderer. Who was the palace murderer? The chief eunuch of the harem found the answer to this question.

NOVEL

ENFILADE

by Olena Demir

Telling the story of her family, the main character depicts the period of the collapse of the Soviet Union, the formation of Independent Ukraine, the school education system, the emergence of spontaneous markets, the Orange Revolution, the terrible state of the penitentiary system of Ukraine, touches on the topic of ATO. Ukraine is a separate character in the novel and, along with others, is undergoing a series of transformations. Through the character's dialogues, painful topics are raised that are not usually spoken about openly. The metaphor of the story is a continuous enfilade of places, other people's apartments, and empty rooms, from which the heroine leaves, never to return. The idea of the novel centres around the question — is a person with the brand of 'social bottom', without education and special talents, able to bring moral values to our society that we would want to emulate? After all, the novel "Enfilade", like any other, is a novel about a person. About dark and light inside us, about friendship and love, stormy feelings and heavy disappointments, about hope and joy in the most difficult moments.

About the Author

Olena DEMIR

She was born and received her higher education in Ukraine. She worked as a journalist and editor-in-chief of the magazine "Kralya". She has been living abroad for the past 10 years. She runs a literary blog, writes about events in Ukraine, and introduces readers to the culture and traditions of Turkey. Her short stories have been published in "Ukraine People Magazine" and included in a collection of Ukrainian authors in Turkey. She is the winner and finalist of ten international literary contests. In 2022, she became a laureate of the European Institute of Literature prize (Krakow). "Enfilade" is the author's debut novel, which, in its manuscript stage, won the 'Book of the Year-2023' contest (in the 'Future Book' nomination) and 'The Coronation of the Word' contest (in the 'International Choice' nomination).

NOVEL

YELLOW BRICKS

by Myra Bo

Have you ever picked up an angel? The hero of "Yellow Bricks", an English teacher, finds a fair-haired teenager in a biker jacket with the words 'Wild Angel' and embroidered wings under his porch. Perhaps this is not an angel at all, but just an ordinary boy who needs saving. But the man himself could also use some help in a life that has lost all meaning. And, oh wonder! After meeting the boy, things start looking up for the teacher — or do they just seem to? What's really going on with this 'angel'? To find the answers, our hero will have to walk a longer road than he ever expected. "Yellow Bricks" is a story about the changes that come when you dare to reach for more. It tells the tale of many people, each with their own struggles and paths to happiness, whose lives sometimes intersect on the same road. Only when you have enough courage to be a good person life will give you what you're searching for.

About the Author

MYRA BO

Myra Bo is a contemporary Ukrainian writer. She has been a participant in multi-genre short prose literary contests since 2022 and is the author of short stories published in collective anthologies and magazines. She primarily works in the genres of speculative fiction, psychological, social, and domestic literature. "Yellow Bricks" is Myra's debut novel. "If a book can't make you laugh or make you happy, it should at least leave you with hope. My books are about ordinary people who often make mistakes, but aren't we all like that? We must hope that if we dare to do more, we can change our own lives. In the end, it's the choice that matters."

HOSPITAL

by Oleksii Volkov

The mysteries of the old monastery, which was later converted into a district hospital during the Soviet era, continue to haunt the more hot-headed members of the staff. No wonder! After all, the monastery was established by the Templars, later became a sanctuary for a notorious outlaw, hosted Napoleon's personal surgeon, and even served as the headquarters for the German army...

The monastery's cellars have been dug through and through, yet the legends of hidden treasures continue to thrive, thus giving rise to an exciting narrative. With wit and humour, the unparalleled master of the adventure genre recounts the lives and work of his colleagues — doctors, while also convincingly demonstrating to the reader that a detective story does not always have to revolve around murder or robbery.

HELLO. COME IN

by Dariia Lozovyk

The rampart, as a defensive structure, separates the protagonist from the reality he is not ready for. An old well with stagnant water reminds him of the importance of purity and transparency. His faithful dog supports him even in what he no longer believes in. "Hello. Come in" is a story about a man's relationship with three women who are so different from each other. Each of them is important to him. Each of them evokes strong feelings. Each one changes him. The realisation that he can be different, that he can fail, that he can fall deeply in love, that he can lose everything, that he can be honest enough to admit it all, is the price he has to pay for meeting the most important part of himself.

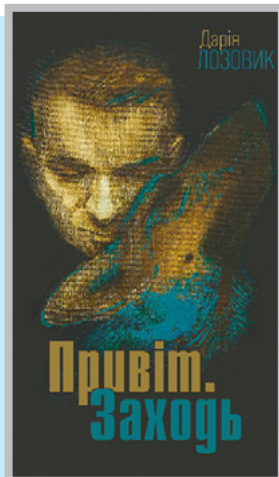

About the Author

PRAYER FOR UKRAINE

by Hryhorii Yaremenko

A high school administrator from the former USSR — a country of militant atheism — buys a cathedral for the Orthodox Church. The traitor, who brought the Ukrainian patriots, that considered him their friend, to the execution, is recognized as a hero and a scientist. In Ukraine, Moscow's vassals fight with fighters for the independence of the state, and in the churches of North and South America prayers for Ukraine are heard every Sunday.

The novel by Hryhorii Yaremenko tells us about all these and many other, at first glance surreal events, such as friendship and love that are stronger than time and circumstances, the search for truth in the darkness of delusion, a picnic that took place fifty years after an invitation to it.

About the Author

DETECTIVE STORY

DALILAH OF THE RELICT VALLEY: A FEMALE DETECTIVE STORY WITH A LVIV SOUL

by Olha Vakkaus

The cold, phantasmagoric February that is in fact one year long, — that is what Ukrainians experience since the full-scale attack of the Russian aggressors, but, in fact, the bloody war has been going on since 2014, when Crimea was annexed. The border ran not only along the Perekop Isthmus — because of the differences in political views, a wedge of hatred appeared between close people, battles are taking place on the battlefield, in the information space, and on a subtle (energy) level. The main character of the mystical detective Daryna-Dalila is the future keeper of the Relict Valley, the Crimean “place of power”. Sei (guides from the parallel world) are preparing her for this mission, but Universal Evil is standing on the way of the light forces. Arriving in Lviv on the Christmas holiday, February 24, 2022, Daryna unexpectedly finds herself in the rear city of warring Ukraine. The girl's life changes dramatically: a continuous stream of shocking events, experiences on the verge of despair and hope cause her spiritual transformation.

DETECTIVE STORY

SECRET SPRING

by Andrii Kokotiukha

Early autumn of 1981. Party and Komsomol activists are dying one after another in Ternopil region. Cause of death — they all drank spring water. And not an ordinary one: near the village where the bodies are found, there is a spring of St. Barbara. Local legend says that the water in it is magical. It prolongs the life of people with a pure heart and kills villains. Mysticism — did someone unknown declare their secret war on the authorities? What secret does a dense forest hide, where a secret spring flows? Kyiv detective Ihor Kniazevych has been instructed to investigate the strange case. So he finds himself in the mysterious village of Haivoron, cut off from the big cities, where people live by their own laws and don't like people like him...

DETECTIVE STORY

AUTUMN SEASON OF DEATHS

by Andrii Kokotiukha

A serial killer is operating on the campus of one of Kyiv's universities. His actions are unmotivated, and further steps are unpredictable.

Residents of nearby dormitories are horrified, and law enforcement agencies are grazing the rear, detaining people not involved in the crimes.

Journalist Andrii Shkarada accidentally intervenes in the investigation, and exposes a ruthless maniac-psychopath, almost paying for it with his own life.

DETECTIVE STORY

THE PROPHETESS

by Andrii Kokotiukha

Policemen can also be imprisoned — for the sins of their colleagues. This is what happened to Serhii Horilyi. After being released from prison he returned to his native Konotop and had to start life from the very beginning. But all that he can do is to be a detective and now he has an opportunity to prove it. A local businessman complained to the police: a woman called a witch predicted his death. The man was laughed at — and he really dies. The investigation is led by a Serhii's friend, to whom the same prophetess also foretells death. And when this prophecy also comes true, Horilyi realizes: everything is serious. He does not believe in mysticism, seeks a rational explanation. But when there is only one step left to the truth, Serhii himself receives a deadly prophecy...

DETECTIVE STORY

AUTO-DA-FÉ

by Mark Korda

The events of the novel take place in Spain at the end of the 15th century, when King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella ruled, the country was liberated from Muslim rule and the persecution of non-believers increased tremendously. Ghettos for Jews and Moors were created everywhere, and on the outskirts of large cities, on the ominous "squares of fire", secular officials, according to the decrees of the New Inquisition, burned unrepentant heretics alive. It was an era of desperate confrontation between cruelty and mercy. The novel attracts attention not only with a sharp and dynamic plot, but also with interesting historical facts and thorough source material.

DETECTIVE STORY

NET

by Viktor Yankevych

In this hectic, multifaceted, eventful world, where one should strive for solitude, we suffer from... loneliness. It would be nice if, on the one hand, no one "would tell you what to do"... but on the other hand, no one would be knocked out of a clearly organized line of "right" people. And the "wrong" people are desperate to be heard and are looking for salvation on the Internet... And suddenly there appears a girl...

MONEY DOCUMENTS OF THE OUN (BOFONS) IN 1929–1954

by Oleh Klymenko

For the first time in the Ukrainian historiography the prior unknown material — bofons, money documents of the Organization of Ukrainian Nationalists (the OUN), was widely analyzed by means of the help of methods of special historical disciplines and were generalized in the monograph on the basis of study of the large set of documents. The stages of their evolution, social, economic and political functions and their importance as economic and historical sources are presented in this scientific research.

The military fund of the Ukrainian Military Organization (UVO) and that of the OUN dates back to the creation and development of the OUN. Bofons are impartial witnesses of the historical events of that time. They played an important role in the system of social and economic relations. Because of the different circumstances and conditions of the rebellious struggle, during the time of their evolution they went through a rather difficult way: from donation receipts to requisitional receipts.

HISTORY

THE BOOK OF POWER. WILL:

by Valentyn Terletskyi

"The Book of Power" is a series of novels by Valentyn Terletskyi about the sources of power. The fiction study of the legends and phenomenon of the Ukrainian Cossacks from its inception to the present is based exclusively on real events, little-known facts and numerous mysteries. An intense plot, heart-breaking adventures, iconic figures, so far unsolved secrets of Zaporizhian Cossacks — all this creates a completely new look at the past of Ukrainian knights, gives unexpected answers to the painful questions of the present, leads to a rethinking of Ukrainian history and helps to believe in the future of our people. The first three novels in the series are "The Book of Power. Will"; "The Book of Power. Faith"; "The Book of Power. State".

About the Author

Valentyn TERLETSKYI

Valentyn Terletskyi is a Ukrainian writer, poet, literary critic, journalist, TV presenter, musician, leader of the rock band Decadence, singer, composer, actor, and director. He is the author of thirteen published books, including four poetry collections and nine novels. Almost all of his works have won various national and international literary competitions. He is also the co-author of several award-winning TV documentaries. He is the author and presenter of the unique TV projects "Cossack Victory" and "Angels of Victory", as well as the author of the blog "Cossack Apocrypha". He wrote, directed, and performed in the musical and poetic monologue "You Hear My Torches!" based on his poetry collection "The Fifth Season", and also created the audiovisual project "Poems in the Radio House". Valentyn Terletskyi is the art director of the Horse Theater "Zaporizhia Cossacks" on Khortytsia Island in Zaporizhzhia.
